Event Descriptions

ARCTIC EXPLORER PAM FLOWERS

Record-breaking explorer (and author) Pam Flowers shares stories from her solo 2,500-mile dog mushing expedition across the Arctic, including intense blizzards, polar bears and more. Learn about dog mushing and the Arctic, the preparation for this expedition and the wonderful people she met on the way. (All Ages, Cottonwood Room)

CLASSIC CONVERSATIONS

Cheyenne Symphony Orchestra Conductor William Intriligator will talk about the upcoming performance, "Symphony & Opera In-Concert" featuring music from the event. You bring the lunch; we provide the entertainment. (Adults, Cottonwood Room)

"CLUE" MYSTERY NIGHT *

The popular board game comes to life! Help solve some mysteries (you can even dress like your favorite Clue character), then enjoy the hilarious film of the same name and a tasty dinner. Registration and permission slips required! (Grades 7-12, Cottonwood Room)

COMPUTER HELP *

Do you have a question about your computer? Let us help! Register for a 15-minute spot, and our talented team will provide as much assistance as they can, answering your general computer and software questions. (Adults, Computer Classroom)

COMPUTER TRAINING *

Library staff will provide introductory training in a variety of classes. We invite you to these 90-minute hands-on basic sessions - including new Wednesday workshops. (Adults, Computer Classroom)

EARTH DAY

Since students are getting out of school early today, come hang out at the library and take part in Earth Day activities, and you'll get a gift to help you start a garden at home. (All Ages, Storytime Room)

FAMILY FUN NIGHT

Round up the family for a night of stories and crafts. This month's theme features dragons & other creatures. (Children & Families, Storytime Room)

HOME PAGES *

Join discussion and activities just for homeschooling families. (Ages 5-12, Storytime and Sage Rooms)

INTRO TO TAI CHI

It's World Tai Chi Day! Join expert Geoff Thompson and some of his students as they discuss tai chi and perform some of the postures. For those that want to, you can even learn a few - just be sure to dress comfortably. (Adults & Teens, Cottonwood Room)

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BOOK CLUB *

We have sessions perfect for your age group. You'll get your book when you register for the session. (Grades 4-8, Sage Room)

NAVIGATING LIFE'S STORMS

Managing stress is all about taking charge of your life, maintaining balance, and meeting challenges. We'll help you learn how to do this with today's hectic lifestyle. Don't miss this workshop in the "From Just Surviving to Thriving" series presented with LCSPC. Dianne Lowe-Carpenter & Kristen Douglas lead the session. (Adults, Sunflower Room)

NEW SUPER MARIO BROTHERS TOURNAMENT

It's the last day of spring break, so bring your friends and battle it out with the game while you devour pizza & snacks. (Grades 7-12, Cottonwood Room)

NOTHING HAPPENING HERE TODAY

Nope. Nothing going on. Don't bother coming to play games or make crafts or watch "Fantastic Mr. Fox." No one's here. The whole staff has to fly to Mars for a special April Fool's Day meeting. (All Ages, 2nd Floor)

POETRY & LYRIC WORKSHOP

Gear up for the Teen Poetry Slam with this incredibly helpful workshop, presented by the talented Jason Joyce. (Grades 7-12, Teen Lounge)

POETRY OF CRAFTS

Celebrate National Poetry Month with this unique craft program: listen to some great children's poems while you create something fun to take home. (Ages 4-12, Storytime Room)

SMALL BUSINESS MARKETING *

Marketing encompasses the entire experience customers have with your business, so make the most of it with this session that explores traditional promotion to social media and everything in between. Presented with the Small Business Administration. (Adults, Cottonwood Room)

TEEN BOOK CLUB *

This one's just for teens! Pick up your copy of the latest selection when you register for the session. (Grades 7-12, Sage Room)

TEEN POETRY SLAM*

Give us your best! If you've got some great original poetry (you need at least four poems) and perform it the best, you could win some serious cash at this event. Register at the Teen Desk. EVERYONE is welcome to come cheer for their favorites. (Grades 7-12, Cottonwood Room)

TUESDAY NIGHT BOOK CLUB

Take part in a discussion of Clyde Edgerton's "Walking Across Egypt." Check out a copy at the library. (Adults, Starbucks-Dell Range)

WRITING GAMES *

Since it's National Poetry Month, take part in form poems, mad libs, word games, then enjoy a 'poetry' snack. (Grades 4-6, Storytime Room)

* Registration required. To do so, call 634-3561 or visit the library.

STORYTIMES AT THE LIBRARY
